

GRAND VIN DE BORDEAUX

CHATEAU BOURDIEU

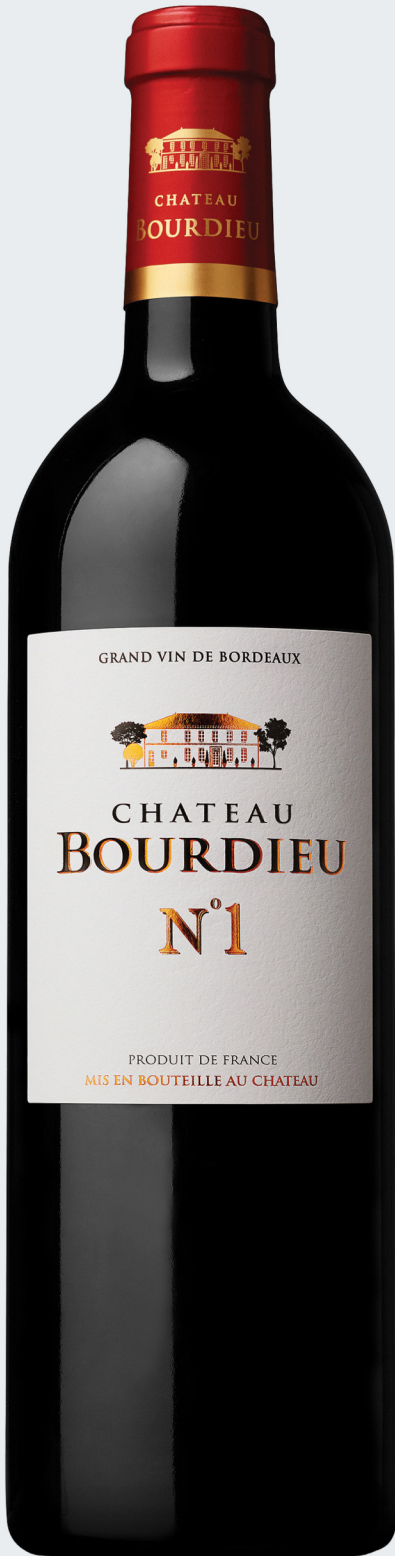

BLAYE
CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

The Bold, a great Bordeaux wine

Château Bourdieu N°1 is a bold wine which enabled a better understanding of the potential of each Terroir of Bourdieu. Far from a micro cuvee, according to Luc Schweitzer N°1 represent the grace and the finesse : Terroir extremely well exposed and the richness of a very fine note of wood. A balance and stunning wine, faithful to its roots and to the vision of the winemaker.

CHATEAU BOURDIEU N°1

Grape Varieties
Merlot	89%
Cabernet-Sauvignon	8%
Malbec	3%
Average Age of vines
35 ans
Terroir
Clayey, limestone, gravelly
Work in the vineyard
Guyot double pruning. Important prophylactic working. Careful disbudding for a ventilation and a great clarity and development of the grapes. A regular maintenance of the soil. Manual stripping allowing ventilation in the fruit bearing part and green harvesting for more clarity and a best concentration.
Harvest
At optimal phenolic ripeness to obtain silky tannins and a strict sorting of the harvest (berry by berry).
Vinification
Plot selection. Strong maceration, 4 weeks in temperature controlled vats. Extraction by punching down. Development of phenolic richness and the complexity of the Terroir.
Ageing
Long ageing period, partly in oak. Quality control over the duration. Few racking and manipulation before the bottling. The objective is to preserve all the aromatic complexity.

Tasting

CHATEAU BOURDIEU N°1

Richness and generosity. Bourdieu N°1 offers a beautiful garnet colour with intense reflections. His expressive and complex nose, composed of over-ripe black fruit : Blackcurrant, blueberry, blackberry and fresh red fruits : Strawberry and redcurrant and wonders grilled and vanilla notes. About the palate, it's rich, structured and full thanks to round and silky tanins. The final offers a gourmand note that may be enjoyed at all times.
